EXTENDED / PRESS KITS & SPEAKER PROFILES

Vladimir Philogène is a filmmaker, entrepreneur, creative leader and speaker whose perspective has been formed by more than two decades of working across directing, photography, production and storytelling. His journey has included the uncertainty of rebuilding, the discipline required to keep moving through setbacks and the responsibility of leading people toward an ambitious vision.

As the founder of Five Star House, a Montréal-based creative production space, and creator of Destinaytion, an independent entertainment and streaming platform, Vladimir has translated those lessons into projects designed to create access and opportunity for other voices.
